Marcia Merrill, The Transition Chick

Greetings!

Welcome to the eCareerCorner Newsletter. I always offer different articles that address issues such as making sense of the transitions in your life, how to find the life you love, how to find a job you love, the challenges of being a solo-preneur, and anything else I can think of.

It's tough to know where and how to begin when you need to make a career change! Life transitions can be daunting, even for the best of us, but you don't have to figure things out by yourself! I'm in your corner! I'll listen to you & find the deeper meaning in your words so that you can begin to make the positive changes in your life!

Let's work together to build you the life you've always dreamed of...

December 2006

I'm in DENIAL--December 1st was last Friday-eeek!
☺ But, I love the holidays--it's a special time of year. First, we have Thanksgiving. It's still the time for thanks-giving--it's ALWAYS the time!

"HAVING AN ATTITUDE OF GRATITUDE"! Heard that repeatedly at a Wealth Retreat I recently went to (for more info, see my Blog). I constantly stress this to my coaching clients--to look for the positives and choose to say thank you to the universe! My belief is everything's interconnected, and we can all have Abundance! Here's my abundance gift to you.

I'm sure you've heard me praise On Purpose Networking for Women. If you're in Maryland--you deserve to check out a meeting in your area. I went to a benefits of OPN Teleclass, and met members I didn't know. Man, I'm a member, and I forgot so much and learned new reasons to be a member! We were led through the amazing web site! Thanks, Ginny! and OPN! And, at the Baltimore Holiday Vendor Event, it was again emphasized about paying attention to those we meet--we may never know why, but we both can learn/help each other--or maybe know something/someone needs to know.

So, one of my OPN sisters is Rachael Strimber, of www.rachaelsgourmetdelectables.com--all her homemade Kosher breads-chocolate/cinnamon challah--yum! She's leasing space for a commercial kitchen, how cool is that? Check her out! Tell your favorite coffee hangout!

Thanks for your encouragement, and for referring others to my web site, newsletter, gift certificates or coaching programs! Many of you have shared my newsletter and forwarded it to friends! Wow, I'm honored to be of service to you!

Some of you have asked me how I do it--got started, and am continuing to grow my business. The short answer--Abundance! Asking for help--resources, learning by attending trainings and teleclasses. I couldn't do it alone--there are books I read, and folks whose stuff I buy to help me be a successful solo-entrepreneur! Check them out!

Happy December--happy holidays!

If I can be of any help jumpstarting you to have more joy, meaning and purpose in your life, don't hesitate

I HAVE A NEW AFFILIATE

I want to share with you what a coaching and consulting organization taught me. Now, before you skip this and read on, thinking it's not for me--I'm not a coach/consultant, but last year, many attendees weren't coaches, either! They just wanted to increase their client numbers, enjoy what they do even more, find ways to boost their income, and have more freedom. We all want that, no matter WHAT!

I learned so much last year, and really did follow some of the ideas; and saw the results--many of you have witnessed my business evolution! :) But, I had to think about things and my business in different ways.

This one (January 2007), promises to be the best, and is the last one! :(I only attended the one in 2006, but listened to the recording of the one in 2005--all were excellent.

These are just some of the things we'll learn!

- Developing and successfully filling high-ticket programs and events;
- Creating multiple group coaching (or any industry) programs for different segments of your client base;
- Designing and integrating high-level retreats in your business;

Some of the most successful coaches from all over the world will also reveal their "hidden" factors of high income:

- Several important mental shifts you'll need to make to get into the six to seven figure level;
- Strategies for turning your small coaching practice into a real business;
- Using several powerful marketing methods that allow you to enroll dozens of clients almost overnight.

If you've been looking for a "missing link" in your coaching business or any business, this may be the most important event you'll ever attend.
